

Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair: Privacy Policy

The Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair (ESDCJF) is committed to promoting and protecting the privacy rights of individuals, as enumerated in Article 1 of the California Constitution, the Information Practices Act of 1977, and other state and federal statutes.

It is the policy of the ESDCJ F to limit the collection and safeguard the privacy of personal information collected or maintained by the Eastern San Diego County Fair. The ESDCJF's information management practices are consistent with the Information Practices Act (Civil Code Section 1798 et seq.), the Public Records Act (Government Code Section 6250 et seq.), Government Code Sections 11015.5 and 11019.9, and with other applicable laws pertaining to information privacy.

The Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair follows these principles in collecting and managing personal information:

We collect personal information on individuals only as allowed by law. We limit the collection of personal information to what is relevant and necessary to accomplish a lawful purpose of the Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair. For example, we need to know someone's first name and e-mail address, among other things, to properly maintain our email newsletter.

CHOICE

We do not select and direct mailing or emailings to you unless you request them. We do not collect home, business or e-mail addresses, or account information from persons who browse our Internet sites. We collect personal information about you only if you provide it to us voluntarily through e-mail, registration forms, surveys, or an online job application.

Personally identifying information includes, but is not limited to, your:

- Name
- Address
- Phone number
- E-mail Address
- Age range
- Password
- Any combination of information that could identify you: birth date, zip code, gender

Visitors to our website are not required to disclose any personal information. However, to enter a contest, you may need to provide your name, email address, mailing address, telephone number, or other information required to fulfill the desired service. Unless otherwise specified, anyone who enters one of our contests is added to our email bulletin mailing list. You are able to unsubscribe at any time from any mailing list.

Persons under the age of 13 are not eligible to subscribe to our email bulletin or provide any personal information. We decline to accept information and will delete any information inadvertently collected from anyone under the age of 13.

We tell people who provide personal information to the Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair the purpose for which the information is collected. We tell persons who are asked to provide personal information about the general uses that we will make of that information. We do this at the time of collection. With each request for personal information, we provide information on the authority under which the request is made, the principal uses we make of the information and the possible disclosures we are obligated to make to other government agencies and to the public.

All data we collect is protected against unauthorized access. We use your personal information to craft special offers for our email bulletin and provide a more enjoyable experience at our events or on our web site. We may also use the information we collect to occasionally send you event announcements or special offers that we think you'll find valuable. The Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair may release personal information in certain narrow circumstances when we believe, in good faith, that such release is reasonably necessary to (i) comply with law, (ii) enforce or apply the terms of any of our user agreements or (iii) protect the rights, property or safety of the Eastern San Diego County Fair, our patrons, or others.

We use personal information only for the specified purposes, or purposes consistent with those purposes, unless we get the consent of the subject of the information, or unless required by law or regulation. The Public Records Act exists to ensure that government is open and that the public has a right to have access to appropriate records and information possessed by state government. At the same time, there are exceptions in both state and federal law to the public's right to access public records. These exceptions serve various needs including maintaining the privacy of individuals. In the event of a conflict between this Policy and the Public Records Act, the Information Practices Act or other law governing the disclosure of records, the applicable law will control.

At this time, Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair does not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to others. We may choose to do so in the future, but you can tell us not to do so by sending an e-mail message to esdcjf.org

We use information security safeguards. We take reasonable precautions to protect the personal information on individuals collected or maintained by the Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair against loss, unauthorized access, and illegal use or disclosure. Personal information is stored in secure locations. Our staff is trained on procedures for the release of information, and access to personal information is limited to those staff whose work requires it. Confidential information is destroyed according to the Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair records retention schedule. The Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair conducts periodic audits to ensure that proper information management policies and procedures are being followed.

CHANGES

Any changes in this privacy policy will be posted at least 30 days prior to the change taking effect. Any information collected under this current policy will remain bound by the terms of this privacy policy. All new information collected, if any, would be subject to the revised privacy policy.

We will provide additional explanations of our privacy policy if requested. If you have further questions about the Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair privacy policy, you may contact:
